Miss Lisa Curto becomes bride of Gerald Gallagher

Wedding vows were exchanged on October 1 in Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church between Lisa Curto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curto, 39 Terrace St. and Gerald Gallagher, son of Mrs. Catherine Gonnier, 15 Sand St. and the late James Gallagher. Father Joseph Sica officiated at the 7 p.m. ceremony before an altar decorated with lilies and carnations. Satin ribbon, baby's breath and fern marked the pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white tulle gown with wedding band necklace, molded bodice and extended and ruffled leg-muffin sleeves. The entire gown was accented with French lace on the train. She carried a traditional cascade of rhodan lilies and roses accented with baby's breath and satin ribbons.

Mrs. Diana Nevins, Carbondale, was matron of honor, attired in a pink knit chignon and the century ballgown, and carrying a lace fan with lilies, miniature carnations and sweetheart roses, baby's breath and satin ribbons. She wore matching flowers in her hair.

Attired in gowns similar to the bride, bridesmaids Maria Paolo, Carbondale, was best man.

Waymart, cousin of the bride, Kathy Mur, home were James Gijolotti, Peter Kohut, Thomas Neveque, all of Carbondale. Caroline Neveque, Carbondale, niece of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid, and James Gallagher, Carbondale, was best man.

One recipe in the recent "Christmas Cookbook" contained an error in measurements which has been brought to our attention. The recipe for

Mrs. Milon's Kolaches, submitted by Carol Eckel of Glen Mills, Pa., should have read "1/2 lb. Crisco."

The recipe for Mrs. Eckel was contacted at her home by Mildred Marat, 45 Washington St., who realized an error had been made. Mrs. Eckel in turn called the NEWS office to notify us of her error.
